TERRIBLE SHIP DISASTER.

A NEW YORK STEAMER SUNK WITH 200 LOST.

LONDON, December 1.—The Ville DuHavre from New York for Havre sunk at sea. Over 200 lost.

The ship Tremontain from New York, arrived at Cardiff at an early hour this morning, bringing intelligence of a dreadful disaster to the steamship Ville du Havre, which left New York on the 15th of November for Havre, under command of Capt. Surmont, at two o'clock on the morning of the 22d of November. The Ville du Havre collided with the British ship Lechearne from London, for New York, and sunk shortly after and two hundred and twenty-six of the passengers on the steamship lost their lives. The Tremontain received eighty-seven of her passengers and crew, and brought them to Cardiff.

LONDON, December 1.—A later dispatch from Cardiff brings the following additional particulars of the loss of the Ville DuHavre: She was struck amidship by the Lachearne and sunk within twelve minutes after the collision occurred. The Lachearne immediately lowered three boats, which rendered all service it was possible for them to do. Fifty-three of the crew were saved, including the captain.

Among the rescued are ten women. Among passengers per the Ville du Havre were Judge Peckham and wife, of Albany, New York; Mrs. Edward Curtes and maid, Mr. R. A. Wilthouse, Jr., Captain C. Hunter and wife, Miss Caroline Hunter, Mr. Cramer, of Waterford, Saratoga county, New York; Thos. Hammond and wife and three children, Mrs. Mary Bulkley, of Rye, West Chester county, accompanied by her daughter, and by Miss Wagstaff, of Long Island. Mrs. Bulkley is among the saved, but the young ladies are considered to have been lost, as Mrs. B. telegraphs that she alone was saved. There were also among the passengers the following members of the late Evangelical Alliance, returning to their homes: Rev. Antonio Corraisco of Spain; Prof. E. Brovier, of Geneva, Switzerland; Rev. N. Weiss, of Paris; Emile Cook, of Paris, and Mr. Larierre Alfred Burbanson, of the Belgian Legation, at Washington, was also a passenger. Charles B. Waite and Julia Waite, two children of the proprietor of the Brevoort House, were also passengers. The son was saved. The daughter was lost. James Bishop, of Bishop & Co., No. 32 Broadway, is saved. Mr. Breeden, first cabin passenger, was lost. His daughter, who was with him was saved. Francisco Dado, of Brooklyn, first cabin passenger, is saved. Mr. R. A. Wilbans, Jr., was saved and in perfect health.

LONDON, December 1.—There were eighty-seven persons saved from the wreck of the Ville du Havre: The Captain and five officers, fifty-four of the crew and twenty-seven passengers, as follows: Miss Mary Hunter, Miss Annie Hunter, Miss Helen Mixter, Miss Madeline Mixter, Emil Coats, Rev. N. Wise, Mrs. H. G. Safford, James Bishops, Mr. Charles Ceste, Miss Breeden, Francisco Slado, Hyppolite Vaile, R. Witthaus, Mr. F. ### SUNDAY NEWS.

THE NATIONAL BUILDINGS SOUTH.

LARGER APPROPRIATIONS RECOMMENDED FOR ATLANTA.

THE CONDITION AT ALL THE SOUTHERN CITIES.

WASHINGTON, November 30.—The report of Supervising Architect Mullett shows that negotiations have been entered into with a view of procuring suitable sites for public buildings at Atlanta, Georgia, Little Rock and Memphis. The old Custom House at Plymouth, N. C., was sold. The marine hospitals at New Orleans and Natchez have been offered, but were not sold, there being no satisfactory bid. The public buildings at Norfolk and Mobile have been greatly improved. The public buildings at Galveston, Texas, have been remodeled and refurnished, and are now in better condition than when first completed.

The great increase in public business of that city made it necessary to rent a building for the use of the Custom House—the post-office requiring all of the first floor, and the courts and offices of the judiciary the remainder of the building. The business of the port is rapidly increasing, and is the most important on the Gulf of Mexico.

I would recommend to the favorable consideration of the department the propriety of erecting a suitable and substantial brick building for the use of Custom House affairs and United States public stores in that city. The public building at St. Augustine, Florida, which was erected by the Spanish Government prior to the acquisition of that State, has been repaired and is now in as good condition as the nature of the case would permit, and provides satisfactory accommodations for Custom house, Postoffice and Courts.

On the 20th of June, 1870, I submitted a plan for the completion of the Custom House at Charleston, South Carolina, which contemplated the omission of the dome and the side porticos, and the modification of the east and west porticos in such a manner that while increasing the capacity and value of the building it reduced the cost of completion, and instead of injuring improved its architecture.

These plans and estimates were based upon drawings on file in this office and the property returns of the farm department, and were carefully prepared therefrom and believed to be correct. Soon after commencing work it was found that important changes had been made by the commission under whose direction the work had been performed, of which the department was not aware, and which greatly increased the expense of completion; that a large portion of the marble appearing on the property returns of the Superintendent was not to be found, having in all probability been removed during the war, and that the portion remaining had been damaged by the bombardment of Charleston and from other causes to a greater extent than was anticipated. It has also been found necessary to take down and rebuild at large a portion of the exterior walls in order to remedy errors and defects in the original construction. These and other causes have increased the cost of the work 187,388 84 beyond the amount estimated. Claims amounting to 59,176 64, the expense of which was unknown to the department who have presented, adjusted and settled for the sum of $22,118 91 for which an appropriation should be made.

The progress of the work has been entirely satisfactory, and has been well and economically managed, and the cost of the work reduced to the lowest point. The excess over the estimate being due entirely to the causes above specified. The improvement in the appearance of building, reduction in cost of completing have been all that was anticipated, the difference in favor of the modified plan being not less than $500,000. The building will, when completed, furnish suitable accommodations for a custom house, including appraisers, stores for collectors of internal revenue, assistant treasurer, and the officers of the judiciary, thereby enabling the department to dispose of the court house building in that city, which is but a temporary structure and cannot be expected to last many years.

The public building at Columbia, S. C., will be an elegant and substantial structure of granite, which is obtained in the immediate vicinity. The cutting was commenced by day labor, and for a time proceeded in a satisfactory manner. The former superintendent proved unable to control the cost of the work, and was accordingly removed. It was found, however, impossible to remedy the effects of his management, and to reduce the cost of the work to a proper price. A contract was accordingly made for its completion, which is now proceeding in a satisfactory manner, and the building will undoubtedly be placed under roof early in the coming season.

The progress of the Public Building at Knoxville is satisfactory. The work is of an excellent character. It has been economically and judiciously conducted, and will be completed early in the coming season. within the amount of the appropriation.

Work has been commenced upon the public building at Raleigh, N. C. It has, however, been found extremely difficult to procure either material or labor at reasonable rates, and as a consequence very little progress has been made.

Negotiations are, however, in progress that warrant the belief that these difficulties will be overcome, and that good progres will be made during the coming season. The building will be 116 feet by 63 feet, 3 stories in height, and will be constructed of pressed brick with stone trimmings.

Mr. Mullett reports appropriations for Nashville, Atlanta, Little Rock inadequate. He recommends the construction of public buildings at Pensacola.

Mr. Mullett thinks the eight hour system alike injurious to the laborer and the government, and only beneficial to perambulating agitators and claim agents.

OUR NAVY.

OLD ROBESON TELLS ALL HE KNOWS ABOUT IT, AND GOES INTO DETAILS WHY HE IS BRANCHING THE THING OUT.

HE CONFESSES TO TAKING UNAUTHORIZED RESPONSIBITIES.

WASHINGTON, November 30.—The Secretary of the Navy, in his report, gives a general detail of the condition of the naval service, and concludes as follows: "The foregoing is a general detail of the condition, situation and movements of the United States for the past year and until the commencement of the present month. Since that time, however, events have taken place which make it proper that the Navy should be put at once upon a footing for active service. It is by no means the province of this department as such to take part in the conduct or discussion of any diplomatic question; nor should its attitude, at a time when serious international difficulties are possible, be held to indicate anything more than a determination on the part of a military department of the Government to be prepared for action, should the necessity for action arise. This is the present condition of public affairs, and such is the attitude of the Navy Department. I have felt it to be my duty under existing circumstances to take promptly every means in my power to put our available force in the best possible condition for immediate and active service. All the power and means of the Department are now devoted to this end, greatly aided at every point by the enthusiastic activity of officers of every grade of the service.

Difficulties and even apparent impossibilities are found to fade away before determined and organized activity, and the navy is already in such a condition that those to whom our interest and honor are now intrusted may be relieved from the embarrassments of a situation where just determination might be disregarded, because thought to be powerless or discreet consideration be mistaken for fear. It is neither necessary nor proper that I should enter here into the details of our preparations. Suffice it to say that a respectable force of war vessels and monitors is already on the sea and concentrating at the station nearest the scene of our possible difficulties; that our whole available iron-clad fleet is in hand, and every wooden ware vessel at the various naval stations there will be ready for sea fully filled as as fast as proper crews can be provided for them, and if the necessity for action should come, before the time for it arrives, all there is of the American navy that can be put afloat on the Atlantic ocean will be in condition and position to take its proper start. Inadequate as this force may be deemed to the responsibilities and pretensions of a government like this and greatly at disadvantage as we certainly will be, in respect to the number and character of vessels in a contrast with the fleets of any respectable naval power, I believe that the activity, skill, science and experience of our navy will be found equal to any difficulty which courage dares to meet, or energy will avail to conquer. They are thoroughly impressed with the spirit, educated in the details and experienced in the war-like duties of their profession, and skilled in the use of all the terrible weapons which science has provided for modern warfare, and of a mood to meet any crisis without shrinking from danger.

Thus prepared and in this spirit, they are ready to meet any of their country's adversaries with the means with which their country provides them. In taking the action above referred to, the Navy Department has already incurred considerable expense and has been forced to assume some responsibility unusual in time of peace. But convinced of the wisdom of prompt and decided action, I have not shrunk from these responsibilities nor hesitated in them and with the approval of the President to make warlike preparations in the interests of peace and of humanity. I confidently rely for support in this attitude on the patriotism of the American people and their representatives who cannot fail to remember that our naval condition is the result of causes which have been constantly pressed upon their consideration, but which have failed to receive full attention, doubtless on account of more pressing present requirements and obligations, and who will clearly realize that duties constantly postponed are certain to be more difficult and much more expensive when performed in haste under the pressure of imperious necessity.

The department has had no necessity to overstep its appropriations, even if it were lawful to do so, but the pressing demands of the present will consume now what was provided for the service of the year. In several of the working bureaux there must be promptly relieved if their work is to go on. The occasion has clearly proven, I think, that our Navy as it exists should at least be put in a condition for active service, and, in any event, a moderate appropriation for this purpose ought at once to be made, and if war should, by any possibility, come, we must be liberally provided, to utilize the means we have, and to provide others to meet the emergency.

LIBEL.

A JURY HANGS FIRE IN PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, November 30—This morning, Judge Finletter charged the jury in the libel case of Chief-of-Police Jones against Joseph R. Reed, journalist. The charge was temperate, but in main advice. It recognized the right to publish fit and proper information concerning public officers.

The jury retired about 10 A. M. and remained out all day. At 6 P. M., the jury not having agreed, a message was sent to the Judge's private residence and an answer was received from him that the jury might render a sealed verdict whenever they were ready with one. Up to a late hour nothing had been heard from them. Those professing to be informed state that an acquittal or disagreement of the jury will result.

CUBA.

THE DIFFICULTIES OF THE VIRGINIUS MATTER.

THE SPANISH CUBANS PROTEST AGAINST THE SETTLEMENT.

NEW YORK, November 30.—A Paris dispatch says Spain has made concessions, and Sickles is ordered to suspend preparations for withdrawing the legation from Madrid. Castellar was only embarrassed for fear of popular reaction against concessions. General Sickles will probably resign soon, fearing that the settlement is insecure.

WASHINGTON, December 1.—All excitement concerning the Virginius has subsided, though there are many speculations as to the probabilities of the Castelar Government being unable to enforce its orders accepting ultimatum of this Government.

NEW YORK, December 1.—The owners of the steamship line to Havana protest against the detention of several hours here on days of sailing by the Spanish Consul, who exercises a system of espionage over the vessels.

At a meeting of the Cuban Junta last evening the belief was expressed that Castelars orders would be disregarded by the officials in power. In the event of Governor Buriel refusing to comply with the instructions of Castelar, preparations will be commenced by the Cubans to put the Island in the best possible state of defence. A member of Los Amigos de Cuba, who came from Santiago de Cuba by the City of Merida, attended the meeting, and he states that when he left Havana the volunteers were strengthening the fortifications. Four hundred additional guns were reported to have been mounted in Moro Castle.

HAVANA, November 30.—The news of the settlement of the Virginius question between Spain and the United States, and terms upon which it is based, was received here with much excitement, but perfect order prevails among the people and volunteers. The chief authorities of the Island, assembled in conference, have sent a manifesto to the Spanish government asking it to wait till it shall have received a protocol about the Virginius case, which shows the right of capture and justice of subsequent proceedings. The mass of the people oppose the surrender of the Virginius, or any yielding to pretensions which may dishonor the Spanish flag. The tone of the press is in accord with the popular feeling. Extraordinary means and resources are being created to resist any aggressive act, although the thinking people do not expect it, knowing the prudence of the American Government.

FELON 34.

TWEED'S TRANSMOGRIFICATION INTO A FELON.

NEW YORK, November 30.—After being taken to Blackwell's Island yesterday, Tweed was asked the usual questions by the recording clerk, to which he answered that he was aged 50; occupation, "statesman;" no religion, but as his family are Protestants, he was entered as a Protestant. He weighed 263 pounds, was taken to the bath, and then had his head shaved in the penitentiary style, and was arrayed in the full striped uniform.

He had two letters from New York physicians recommending that he be placed in the hospital, but after an examination by the penitentiary physician, he was remanded to a common cell like all other felons and numbered 34. The jacket given him to wear is known at the penitentiary as the larceny jacket. His son staid by him until he was led away to his cell, when he and a few friends and reporters left the stand.

The Cincinnati Enquirer has the following rhymes, descriptive of a leader of the S. P. C. A., of that town:

There was a philosopher named Pye,
With a mild and gentle blue eye,
When he'd see a man cruel
Twist the tail of the mu-el,
He'd rub his nose with an onion and cry,
This fine old pumpkin, Pye.

The orange harvest seems to be very abundant in southern California. "At Van Leuven's orchard, near San Bernardino," says the Gazette of that place, "about fifty of the largest trees will yield an average of 1,500 oranges each, and they are breaking down under the weight of the delicious fruit. Van Leuven last year picked a hundred that would weigh a pound apiece."

A Kansas farmer who offered to take a Methodist Bishop from one town to another, fretted all the way for fear a certain bridge had been carried off by a late freshet. At last the Bishop was so annoyed that he put an end to his companion's whining by saying: "My dear sir, I am an old man, but I never in my life went over a bridge until I got to it."

The Rothschilds have just made to the administration of the fine arts, Paris, a valuable present, consisting of columns, statues and bas reliefs, coming from the ruins of a temple dedicated to Apollo-Didymus, discovered in the neighborhood of Mileto (Anatolia) in the course of excavations made some years past at the cost of these gentlemen.

A German peddler sold a man a liquid for exterminating bugs. "And how do you use it?" inquired the man after he had bought it. "Ketch de pug un drop von little drop into his mouth," answered the peddler. "Pshaw!" exclaimed the purchaser, "I could kill it in half the time by stamping on it." "Vell," explained the German, "that is a goo vay, too."

Of all the persons who died in Shreveport during the recent epidemic we have the age of 585 of them respectively. Of these 100 died under 10 years of age, 94 were between 10 and 20, 156 were between 20 and 30, 131 were between 30 and 40, 59 were between 40 and 50, 29 were between 50 and 60, 18 were above 60. It will be observed that the greatest mortality occurs between the ages of 20 and 50, and the next greatest from 30 to 40, the period of life when the human system ordinarily has most capacity to resist disease.

There appears to be some doubt existing in Louisiana respecting the attitude of ex-Governor Warmoth in relation to the two contending political parties. Kellogg is represented as expressing the utmost confidence in Warmoth's devotion to his cause, while Governor McEnery, it is said, finds it impossible to believe that he will desert the Fusion ranks. It is pretty safe to predict that Warmoth will eventually be found on the strong side.

St. Louis, November 27.—Ex-United States Senator Richard Yates, of Illinois, died suddenly at Barnum's Hotel here at 9 o'clock to-night. Mr. Yates had been to Fulton, Arkansas, as United States Commissioner to examine the lower end of the Cairo and Fulton Railroad, and returned here last Sunday, since when he has been quite feeble, and yesterday was very ill. He revived, however, and this evening while busying himself with preparations for starting home tomorrow morning, suddenly fell backward and died in five minutes.

When the King of Portugal addresses his wife publicly, he is obliged to say: "Very high and very excellent Princess Maria Pia of Savoy, Queen of Portugal, my dear, well beloved and highly-esteemed spouse, may our Lord hold your Majesty's person in his holy keeping." But in the seclusion of their majestic, very high and very excellent private life, his Majesty is very apt to run on after this style "D— you, Maria, where have you put my suspenders?"

The United States Senators, whose terms expire on March 4, 1875, are Ames, Mississippi; Bayard, Delaware; Boreman, West Virginia; Brownlow, Tennessee; Buckingham, Connecticut; Carpenter, Wisconsin; Casserly, California; Chandler, Michigan; Edmunds, Vermont; Fenton, New York; Flanagan, Texas; Gilbert, Florida; Hamilton, Maryland; Ramsey, Minnesota; Schurz, Missouri; Scott, Pennsylvania; Sprague, Rhode Island; Stewart, Nevada; Stockton, New Jersey; Sumner, Massachusetts; Thurman, Ohio, and Tipton, Nebraska, twenty five, of whom fifteen are recognized as supporters of Grant's administration.

Fuller details respecting the devil fish seen off St. Johns, N. F., show that he was even larger than at first described to be. The fishermen who saw the creature in broad day, and were close to it and examined it before it gave any sign of life, or alarmed them by its movements, declare positively that its length was not less than sixty feet, and its diameter five feet, while its tail was fully ten feet across. Its beak they describe as being "the size of a six-gallon keg." With this formidable weapon it struck their boat violently and then commenced winding its arms around it. Alarmed by these movements, a fisherman seized his axe and cut off two arms which were around the boat. One of these arms was thirty inches in thickness, but the portion amputated was not more than six feet in length. The arm was lost, the fisherman having thrown it away. The longer arm, they brought to St. John's, but not before six feet of it was destroyed. The portion now immersed in spirits and preserved in the museum is nineteen feet in length, and the men say that they left ten feet at least behind, attached to the body of the fish, so that its original length must have been thirty-five feet. This corroborates their tale of the size of the body, for only a large body could work such enormous arms.

Amende.

In some selections from the press on Cuba in Sunday's Constitution, an excellent article was wrongly credited. It was an editorial from the Griffin Star.

☞ United States Senator Eugene Casserly, of California, resigned his place for the two fold reason that his health was bad and his private affairs needed his attention.

He retires permanently from public life.

☞ Of the whole number of representatives elect (the Territorial Delegates having no votes) 120 were members of the last House, while no less than 172 are new members. Of the latter number, however, twenty have been members of former Congresses. The roll foots up as follows:

|---|---|
| Republicans | 191 |
| Democrats | 87 |
| Liberal Republicans or Independents | 4 |
| Contested seats | 10 |
| Total | 292 |

The Distribution.

We urge our subscribers, who have delayed to the last moment, to delay no longer. But fourteen days now remain of the sixty. It is impossible for regular agents to visit more than a few sections. Your chance is to send at once by mail. It is not reasonable to suppose that newspaper subscribers will ever have such an opportunity again in their lives. Your subscription only is asked. You pay nothing but what you will pay anyhow. Send forthwith.

Tweed.

Crime breeds startling retributions. A year or two ago Wm. M. Tweed was a political monarch. He controlled the great State of New York. He stole himself rich. His brazen impudence under prosecution has been something simply audaciously sublime.

The penalty has come at last. Not even his ill-gotten masses of wealth could buy his acquittal. He was convicted and sent to the penitentiary, an ignominious felon.

Last night the hired messengers of the lightning told us that he is lying in the prison hospital suddenly stricken with brain fever and not expected to live. The callous spirit gave way at last. He was unable to stand the doom of utter shame.

A lesson for moralists.

The Last Sea Horror.

Our midnight despatches give us a graphic account of the collision of the ship Lochearn with the large steamer Ville du Havre, bound from New York for Europe, and the sinking of the latter with the loss of over two hundred people.

This is another of those harrowing ocean horrors of which we have had too many. The fault was wholly in the Lochearn, which in a clear night ran into the Ville du Havre, with what must have been a culpable negligence. The Lochearn went a mile after the collision before returning to assist. The Lochearn must have been injured, and has not been heard from.

The Benefit of One Advertisement.

Wee would call the attention of our merchants to the following paragraph which we find in one of our exchanges:

If there is one man on this continent above another who appreciates the benefit of advertising it is Orange Judd. A number of years ago, when he and his wife spent their evenings in putting up packages, and a penny had its full value to them, he sent a boy with a check for one hundred dollars to the Herald office with instructions to pay what was due and leave the rest for future advertising. The boy being dull of comprehension did not understand him, and told the bookkeeper to use one hundred dollars for one day. The next morning what was Mr. Judd's horror, on taking up the Herald, to see "Read the American Agriculturist" repeated for nearly a whole column. He rushed down to the office for an explanation, and found that they only followed instructions and there was no help for it. "We are ruined," he said to his wife, "a whole year's advertising gone in a day." But instead of being his ruin, it was the beginning of his success. Immediately subscriptions poured in from all parts of the country. The Agriculturist soon became an institution, and its proprietor is one of the richest men in New York. Mr. Judd has continued, from the day of his lucky mistake, to be one of the most extensive advertisers in the country, and he has his reward.

Brother Beecher.

Brother Beecher, with all his genius, gets into trouble sometimes. We mean Henry Ward Beecher, the man of sensational preaching, and with it all a powerful vigorous thinker and talker.

Some of Beecher's Congregational friends think he doesn't keep up church discipline properly in his huge congregation, and so arraigned him. Beecher knocked their arraignment into a cocked hat, in about ten minutes' talk.

He made the candid admission that he was a sort of a guerilla in his Congregational brotherhood, and he wished they could ship him. He boldly declared he had to keep up the same course.

Mr. Beecher's effect is thus stated:

The tremendous power which Mr. Beecher's oratory exerts over his congregation was illustrated during this speech. His impassioned manner and rapidly uttered words carried all before them. The outbursts of applause were of great heartiness and frequency. When his points were quaint or humorous, everybody laughed, and when he alluded to the nearing close of his life the tears rolled down many faces. During his pathetic peroration, which was given in a broken voice, and while his flushed face was completely wet with weeping, the sobs of the women could be heard in all parts of the great room, and hundreds of faces were covered with handkerchiefs The final applause was of several moments duration, and at its subsidence Mr. Beecher put on his cloak and went out with his hat in his hand.

P. S.—Since writing the above our midnight dispatches inform us that the war on Beecher for want of discipline in his church is to be kept up. All of the Congregationalist Churches of the United States are invoked to come to the assault.

It remains to be seen whether the sect will stand to Beecher as his church has done, and whether, if it does not, his church will antagonize the sect. If his church stands to him against the denomination, then his desire to be free will be realized.

Under any circumstances it will be a celebrated religious battle, and it will still further render famous the already celebrated Beecher. He will lose nothing in any event, and may rise to a sort of picturesque martydom.

Milton Malone.

The long suspense is over, the tragic drama ended, and Milton Malone has expiated his crime with his life. His terrible fate, and the prolonged struggle to avert it, suggest lessons of tremendous import, and the wellbeing of society demands their solemn and earnest consideration.

It is a painful duty that we are about to perform, but to ignore that duty would be an act of flagrant treachery to the true mission of journalism. God knows that we would not write a line to stir uneasily the coffined dust of the dead; and he who would causelessly pour one drop more of anguish into the bitter cup pressed to the lips of an aged sire and grief-stricken mother, would be demon, and not human. But the claims of society are superior to those of its individual members, or rather cannot be ignored upon the impulse of pity for bleeding hearts. We rejoice, too, that the course of the Constitution places it in a position to command the most thoughtful and unprejudiced attention. Scrupulously did it avoid all utterances that could possibly decrease the chances of a fair and impartial trial, and even dared, when indignation at the time of the homicide ran riot, to breast the popular tide and counsel warmly against acts and publications calculated to inflame the public mind or in any way interfere with the dispensing of perfect justice to the offender; though from the moment of commission to the moment of expiation we have never indulged the slightest doubt as to his unpardonable guilt. After conviction, at the instance of the prisoner an editor was sent to his cell, and for three hours listened to his story, which was published to the world without one unfriendly comment, and in a form to evoke the kindliest consideration. And finally, when impelled by sense of duty to the instant support of an Executive encountering an almost unparalleled pressure to force him between the gallows and its rightful victim, the pen already seized was dropped tremblingly at the mute appeal of human woe. But longer silence would be criminal to the last degree.

There are three lessons strongly suggested by this remarkable case. Two of them we shall notice but briefly.

What a terrible illustration have we here of the almost inevitable sequel to misspent youth. Evil associations, night debaucheries and sensual indulgences, surely lead to ruined character, to hardened vice, to crime, disgrace and the gallows. But let us probe to the very roots of this moral cancer. Let the severest condemnation be hurled upon evil associations, upon the sowing of wild oats, upon the carrying of concealed weapons, upon vicious practices of every kind. Our young men cannot be too earnestly warned against the fearful consequences of contracting these habits. But beyond these we must go to find the first cause of the downward step to ruin—the first responsibility for the career of recklessness and crime.

We would that we had the pen of an angel that we might write ineffacibly upon the doors of every parental home this awful truth: the laxity of parental authority is responsible for the ruin of youth in almost every instance. We distinctly state that we know not how Malone was reared and hope there is no application in his case. But we unveil the naked truth, that homes now basking in fancied security may be saved from wretchedness, disgrace and desolation. As we pen these lines there are youths walking our streets going whither they please, into places of amusement, into haunts of vice, into evil company With solemn earnestness we declare to every parent, who suffers his boy to wander at night from the parental roof, to dispose of his time without parental superintendence or direction, is primarily responsible for his fall. It matters not that all this may be in disregard of parental advice; this but aggravates the sin, for parental authority should be sternly enforced. We shudder, when we think of the many families we know who are paving the way to their own disgrace. We plead for happy homes, when we appeal for the enforcement of parental authority—for a sterner supervision of beardless youths now roaming at large through the purlieus of our city.

But from counsel to parent and child we turn to the lesson for evil doers. An unmistakable lesson it is, and a glorious one for the people of Georgia, the protection of their families and the happiness of their homes. He who transgresses the law must suffer its penalty. There is no escape. Malone's counsel carried his case from court to court, even to the Supreme Court of the United States, and failing, appealed to Executive clemency. But all in vain. There is no preventive of crime so powerful as the certainty of suffering the penalty for its commission.

We come to speak, lastly, of an evil crying loudly for correction. We refer to the signing of petitions for Executive clemency, and the great wrong done to society and its highest interests by men who allow their sympathy to overthrow their reason. As this article, however, has grown to considerable length, we defer its continuation to our next issue.

Mr. Stephens.

Mr. Stephens appears to have been treated in Washington with unusual distinction. The courtesy shown to him has certainly been unstinted.

Our telegrams tell us that an exception was made in his favor in drawing seats in the representative chamber. He was permitted to choose his seat, and selected one in front of the speaker on the Democratic side of the house.

Such consideration to the ex-Confederate will do no harm, but will be an example of kindly feeling that will produce good fruits and that is more potent than ten million schemes of falsely so-called reconstruction in restoring a once severed Union.

☞ A Georgian, who remembers, sends us the following by mail. If the memories were less solemn we should hesitate to permit an approach to the liturgical paraphrase. But if Jacobin rule in this accursed country is not a theme for prayer, we do not know one that is:

To the Editor of the Mobile Register:

The 27th inst. having been appointed by President Grant as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, it is suggested that the following form be read on that day in the States of South Carolina, Alabama and Louisiana:

For the destruction of political rights and civil liberty; for a centralized despotism and corrupt Congress; for Wall street villainy and panics; for bribery and railroad rings and ruthless plunder of a ruined people; for scalawag, carpet-bag and negro legislation; for tariff and taxation; for Federal troops quartered in our cities; for midnight arrests of peaceful citizens and Albany penitentiaries; for negro policemen, magistrates, clerks of courts, tax assessors, grand and petit juries, and thieving officials; for rape, violation and murder; for bankruptcy and sheriff's sales; for ruin, desolation and famine, we beseech thee to make us thankful, Good Lord!

Shots at Social Myths.—Mrs. Maria Jourdan Westmoreland, the Southern authoress, made a successful debut as a lecturer before a cultivated and fashionable audience at the theatre of the Union League Club last Saturday evening. In presence, manner and personal appearance she possesses all the elements of popularity. When so many plain-looking lecturers appear in public, it is refreshing to see one who is endowed with beauty and wit. Mrs. Westmoreland took for her subject "Shots at Social Myths." She was equally severe upon both sexes, firing whole broadsides of satire and sarcasm at the "morals" of men and the insincerity and gossiping tendencies of women. The lecture showed its author to be a woman of culture and extensive reading. It was well received by the audience, its keen hits and brilliant points being warmly applauded.

A KENTUCKY TRAGEDY

A Father and Two Sons Lying Dead in One House, and in Another a Father and His Two Sons Lie Wounded.

The Most Terrible Drama of the Day.

Correspondece of the Courier-Journal.]

HARRODSBURG, KY., November 27.

Our town is in a terrible statement, caused by the difficulty which happened in the court-house yesterday afternoon, and which resulted in the killing of three men and wounding of three others.

The parties engaged in the affray were Phil. B. Thompson, Sr., an old and distinguished lawyer of our town, and brother of ex-Senator J. B. Thompson, and his three sons, viz.: D. M. Thompson, Phil. B. Thompson, Jr., Commonwealth's Attorney from this district, and J. B. Thompson, Jr., County Attorney, against Theodore H. Davis, Esq., and his three sons, Theodore, Jr., Larue and Caldwell. Circuit Court has been in session for several days, and was at the time this shooting occurred, with Judge Wickliffe on the bench. The petit jury had just retired for a few minutes, when all of a sudden followed by twenty-five or thirty others simultaneously almost inside of the house, which was crowded at the time. The excitement was intense. Men tumbled headlong out of the windows and doors. Doctors, lawyers, citizens and the judge himself rushed for a place of safety, piling one upon top of another, secreting under and behind benches and pillars. The stove and court-house walls were literally riddled with bullets, while one other mortally and three others slightly wounded.

A PISTOL SHOT WAS HEARD,

Theodore Davis, Sr., was shot through the heart and died immediately, and his son, Larue Davis, after receiving four bullets in his body, fell, and died in a few minutes. Theodore Davis, Jr., was shot through the body and in the right hand. He lived until this morning and expired about ten o'clock. He walked from the court-house to the Adams Express office after he was shot, and did not at the time think he was seriously hurt. Phil. B. Thompson, Sr., was shot through the right thigh, J. B. and his brother, P. B., Jr., were wounded slightly and several holes shot through their clothing. D. M., another brother, also had his clothes perforated with bullets. One ball passed through his hat. The fight, though sudden,

WAS NOT WHOLLY UNEXPECTED,

for it was generally known that both parties were armed, and Judge Wickliffe had the day previous ordered the sheriff to arm himself and deputies, and be ready to quell any disturbance that might arise, and to "nip it in the bud" at all hazards. However, when the difficulty did begin the danger was thought to have been over, and the sheriff, with the judge's permission, had gone home. The 16th of December has been set for the examining trial, and then further particulars will be brought to light.

THE CAUSE OF THE FIGHT.

was about a suit which had been brought by one Meux against Theodore Davis for $2,500. Davis swore that he had paid the money, and produced the note as evidence, and Mr. Thompson, Sr., contended that the note had not been paid and that it had been surreptitiously obtained from his desk. Such, I am informed, was in substance the origin of the difficulty which terminated so seriously.

A TERRIBLE COINCIDENCE.

A father and three sons were arrayed against a father and three sons, and whilst I write, a father and two sons lie dead in one house, while a father and two sons lie wounded in another. Both families live on the same street, not far apart. The battle, for such it may be called, was short, fierce and decisive. There was no flickering. All the parties were cool and determined and not a shot was fired at random or without aim. The dead will be buried in one grave tomorrow, and Wednesday, the 26th of November, 1873, will hereafter be known as the "Bloody Wednesday" in the history of Herrodsburg.

INCIDENTS OF THE FIGHT.

Bud Robards, our efficient jailer, in his vain efforts to quell the difficulty, received a slight flesh wound. With this exception, none others besides the actual participants were injured.

Some amusing incidents happened while the shooting was in progress, although the termination was so sad and dreadful.

Judge Hardin rolled over behind the stand, and his Honor Judge Wickliffe came tumbling on top of him, and Abe McMurdle, a 300 pounder, on top of Judge Wickliffe.

In another corner, Tom Bell, Esq., and George Morgan rolled over a bench, each scrambling for the bottom, whilst under another bench was our worthy city marshal and a praying member of the Christian church, one praying and the other swearing for the best place of safety.

But this indeed is a sad Thanksgiving day for two families and their respective friends, and indeed our whole community is terribly shocked and grieved by the unhappy and unfortunate occurrence.

Since writing the above we have been informed that Theodore Davis, Jr., a short time before his death, sent a message to the Thompsons, asking their forgiveness and forgiving them for the bodily harm inflicted on him. An affecting incident occurred not long before his death. On either side of his bed stood two men who had been bitter enemies. Addressing them he said: "You have been bitter enemies, now shake hands over my dying body;" and so, by the bed of a bloody death, the two men became friends. Theodore, Jr., also said soon after he was shot, that the encounter was brought on by the rashness of Larue, and he begged his mother not to prosecute the case. The Thompsons profoundly deplore the dire necessity which drove them to it.

CONGRESS.

ATTORNEY GENERAL WILLIAMS MADE CHIEF JUSTICE—BILL TO DIVIDE GENEVA AWARD—COURTESY TO MR. STEPHENS.

WASHINGTON, December 1.—The Cabinet remained in session to a late hour waiting for a committee from Congress.

Judge Williams was announced as Chief Justice, and Colonel Bristow, of Kentucky, as Attorney, vice Williams.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

Crostier, from Kansas, was admitted.

D. Newman resigned as Chaplain.

Many bills were introduced, one making Italian padrons felons. The bill introduced by Mr. Edmunds to provide for the distribution of the sum awarded to the United States by the Geneva tribunal of arbitration is the same bill which was reported favorably by the Senate Judiciary Committee last January. It provides for the appointment by the President of five commissioners to adjust and determine the amount of compensation due to the several claimants for damages arising from the depredations of rebel cruisers to be discharged out of the indemnity fund awarded by the Geneva tribunal.

The allowances of compensation are to be made only for claims directly resulting from damage caused by the Alabama and Florida, and their tenders, and by the Shenandoah after her departure from Melbourne, February 18th, 1865. No claims shall be admissable for any loss for which compensation has been received from insurance, but allowance may be made for the difference between losses sustained, and insurance received therefor. No claim is admissable for unearned or prospective freights, or for seamans wages for more than one year after the breaking up of a voyage. No claim shall be allowed in behalf of any insurance company or insurer except for the excess of losses over premiums or gains arising from war risks. No claim shall be allowed in favor of any insurance company not lawfully existing at the time of the loss under the laws of some one of the United States, and no claim shall be allowed in favor of any person not entitled at the time of his loss to the protection of the United States or who did not at all times during the late rebellion bear true allegiance to the United States. Allowance of interest on losses may be allowed at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum. In case the fund shall not hold out for the payment of all the awards it is to be distributed pro rata in accordance with them, and in any event the United States Government is to retain 5 per cent. of the amount of local award in order to defray the expenses of adjudication.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

General Butler made several efforts to inaugurate measures to seat members Sheldon, Sypher and others, from Louisiana, but failed to attract Speaker Blaine's attention.

The vote for Speaker stood as follows: Blaine, 190; Wood, 77; Cox, 2; Clymer, 1; A. H. Stephens, 1.

About fifty members from the South took the ante bellum oath, others took an oath long as your arm.

In drawing for seats, exceptions were made in favor of Mr. Stephens and Mr. Dawes. Mr. Stephens' seat is directly in front of the Speaker, on the Democratic side of the aisle. The courtesy to Mr. Stephens was upon the motion of Mr. Platt, of Virginia.

Butler, of Massachusetts, offered a resolution to admit to their seats, Messrs. Sypher, Sheldon, and Pinchback, of Louisiana, without action on it.

The House at half-past four adjourned.

THE OCEAN HORROR.

PARTICULARS OF THE LOST SHIP—VILLE DE HAVRE.

NEW YORK, December 1.—The Ville de Havre carried no steerages. Had 130 cabin passengers. Crew about 150.

Captain M. Sweymont, the commander of the Ville de Havre, is fleet Commodore, and has been in the service of the line since its organization.

Judge Peckham, who was among the lost, was one of the most prominent members of New York State, and was Judge of the Court of Appeals. The ship was 12,000 tons burthen, drawing twenty feet of water. She was launched at Glasgow, Scotlannd, in November, 1869. Her dimensions are, length 236 feet, beam 35 feet and depth of hold 21 feet. She was in this port in September, 1871, and attracted much attention as she lay at her dock in the East River. She was of what is known among the shipbuilders as a medium model. The officers of the Ville du Havre reported to be saved are the captain, second captain, second officer, third officer, fourth officer, and purser Eighty-seven persons were saved. Several notable Boston families aboard. The Ville du Havre was the Napoleon III. altered and enlarged, and, except the Great Eastern, was the largest ship ever left port.

6 P. M.—The ship Lochearn was so badly damaged by the collision with the steamship Ville de Harve that the persons rescued by her from the wreck requested to be put on board the Tri-Mountain and were safely transferred, with the exception of three persons who were too badly wounded to be removed.

After the collision the Lochearn put about for Queenstown, at which port she was due about the 29th ult., notwithstanding her disabled condition. Nothing has been heard of her.

WASHINGTON DOTS.

WASHINGTON, December 1.—Mr. Sherwood, elect Postmaster of the House, writes President Grant a letter highly complimentary of Gov. Bard's conduct of the canvass.

The debt statement shows $9,060,000 increase. Coin in the Treasury $84,000,000. Currency in the Treasury $1,250,000.

OLD THEATRE REBUILT.

WASHINGTON, December 1.—The new National Theatre, erected upon the ruins of the National destroyed by fire several years ago, by W. W. Rapley, and managed by J. G. Savills, opened to-night with Maggie Mitchell as the star. A brilliant audience was present. The theatre is one of the finest in the country.

THE GREAT BOND CASE—A GEORGIA GIRL UNNAMED BURNED TO DEATH AT SALEM COLLEGE.

WILMINGTON, December 1.—In the Circuit Court of the United States the argument in the case of special tax bondholders against the public Treasurer, was concluded. Arguments were made in behalf of the bondholders by Hon. Reverdy Johnson and R. C. Badger. The speech of Mr. Johnson was one of his ablest efforts, and made a profound impression. A large audience composed of the legal fraternity members of the Legislature and others.

The Decision of the Court was reserved.

The Grand Lodge of the Masons of the State met here to-night. There was a large attendance.

A young lady from Georgia, a student at the Moravian College, at Salem, was burned to death on Saturday. Her clothes caught fire accidentally.

A LOUISIANA CONFISCATION CASE.

WASHINGTON, December 1.—In the case of Lasire against Rotheron from the Supreme Court of Louisiana, brought to recover property confiscated in the absence of Lasire, from New Orleans, after capture by military orders, the Supreme Court to-day decided that the confiscation was void and inoperative because there was not and could not be a legal service of notice to Lasire. The Court below sustained the confiscation and the judgment is reversed.

TWEED DYING.

NEW YORK, December 1.—A report to the Mayor's office says that Wm. Tweed is in a hospital at Blackwell's Island with inflamation of the brain and not expected to live.

THE SALARY GRAB.

THE REPUBLICAN CONGRESSMEN GOING BACK ON IT.

GOTHAM GLIMPSES.

GREAT LABOR MEETING-BEECHER'S CHURCH WARRED AGAINST—BISHOP CUMMINS ARRAIGNED.

NEW YORK, December 1.—A mass meeting of the unemployed working people of this city is called at Cooper Institute on the evening of December 11th to devise means for the relief of their needs. All the labor organizations throughout the country are requested to hold meetings at the same time for the same purpose. The call is signed by George Blacor, Chairman of the Central Council in this city, and other officers of similar bodies here.

A joint committee of the Church of Pilgrims and Clinton Avenue church, Brooklyn, issued a call for a conference of Congregational churches of the United States to consider the alleged laxity of discipline in Plymouth church.

A meeting of the bar will shortly be held to protest against the action of Judge Davis in fining Tweed's counsel.

Work continues at the navy yard with activity and recruiting is lively. The Colorado will probably go into commission Wednesday.

The Spanish ship Arapales will float out in the stream Thursday and take guns on board.

The Union Trust Company elected Edward King, President, James H. Ogilvie, Secretary, and an executive committee.

Right Rev. B. B. Smith, D. D., Bishop of Kentucky, has issued a paper announcing that Dr. Cummins will be tried for violation of section 1, canon 9, title 2, and saying any episcopal act of his pending this trial will be null and void. All members of the church are enjoined to give no countenance to any movement in which Dr. Cummins is engaged.

The Ocean Horror.

THE PITEOUS AND HARROWING PARTICULARS OF THE LAST SEA DISASTER.

LONDON, December 1.—The following additional particulars of the loss of the Ville de Havre have been gathered from the officers and passengers at Cardiff:

The Ville de Havre experienced a thick fog until the 20th. At the time of the collision the weather was clear. Little wind was blowing, but there was a heavy sea. The Captain commanding had just retired and the second officer was in charge. The lights on the steamer were all right and the collision was wholly unexpected. The Lochearn struck the steamer amid ships and made a chasm twelve feet deep, and from twenty-five to thirty feet wide. The exact position of the Ville du Havre at the time was latitude 47:21; longitude 35:03.

A panic took possession of the passengers. Five minutes after the collision, the main and mizzen mast fell across the two large boats which were filled with people, and ready for launching. The boats were crushed, and their occupants killed and injured.

In the brief interval between the collision and the sinking of the steamer, the crew were able to launch only a whale boat and the Captain's gig. The Lochearn went a mile before stopping. She then got out four boats to pick up the people struggling in the water. Meantime, the whale boat, under the command of the Second Lieutenant of the Ville du Havre, picked up one load of those who were clinging to planks, spars, etc., and took them to the Lochearn. She returned to the scene and rescued another. Capt. Surmont, who remained on deck to the last, and was rescued by this boat.

Three quarters of an hour after the collision one of his officers swam a mile to the Lochearn and was hauled on board with a rope.

The boats continued to search the water in the vicinity of the disaster until there was no hope of saving any more lives.

The cold was intense. Many of the survivors were immersed two hours and were almost lifeless when rescued.

The ship Tri-Mountain sighted the Lochearn at 8 A. M., six hours after the sinking of the steamer, and received the survivors before reported. Those saved speak in the highest terms of the kindness of the Captain Urquihart, her commander. There were six stowaways on board the Ville du Havre.

Later accounts make the date of the collision the 22d instead of the 23d.

THE COURTS.

Yesterday afternoon the Court was engaged upon the case of the State vs. J. T. Jones, bastardy. Pending the introduction of evidence for the State, the Court adjourned until its usual hour to-day.

The Court of Ordinary.

The regular monthly session of the Court of Ordinary for probate purposes was held yesterday, the Hon. Daniel Pittman, Judge, presiding.

The following petitions were taken up by the Court, and after consideration were granted.

Of Mrs. Laura E. White for letters of administration on estate of John C. White, deceased.

Of William Dwyer to have James D Collins appointed administrator de bonis non on the estate of Joe Bearman.

The will of Cynthia Green, deceased, was admitted to Probate, and S. B. Love appointed executor.

The will of Matthew W. Raburn was admitted to record, and W. F. Chaplin, of Chatham county, appointed executor.

The Cold Water Templars.

Editors Constitution: Odd Fellows' Hall was crowded to repletion, Sunday afternoon, by a splendid audience, composed of the best citizens of Atlanta, to hear Col. S. B. Spencer, our next Mayor, and Col. D. Pike Hill deliver addresses on Temperance.

Before the speaking commenced, several candidates were initiated into the order of Cold Water Templars, joining Rhoda Temple, Captain John Milledge, superintendent. Never was the beautiful ceremony more impressive or inspiring, every one present feeling the force of the lessons taught.

Mr. W. A. Camp, of Rome, Georgia, was then introduced to the audience. Mr. C. is quite a young man, and judging from his effort before that audience, has a brilliant future before him. Next came Miss Mattie Berry, the lovely Vice Chief of the Temple, who read an essay on temperance that charmed all who heard it.

Colonel S. B. Spencer closed the exercises in a clear, logical, eloquent appeal in behalf of the Cold Water Templars of the State. His burning words sank deep in the hearts of hundreds who heard him. We are glad to see our public men taking part in these meetings, and hope to see the wish of J. G. Thrower realized—that temperance will soon become a subject of serious thought with every man, woman and child in the community. TEMPERANCE.

The Great Eastern Circus.

The Great Eastern Menagerie and Circus will arrive here this morning. It is the only circus, we believe, that has survived the panic. The Grand Parade takes place at ten o'clock to-day. A performance will be given at 2 P. M., and to night at the site of the Georgia Western Railroad depot, on Marietta street.

A brief history of this modern Colossus will not be amiss here in this connection. It was organized in Atlanta, Ga., two years ago, giving its initial performance here. It extended a most successful Northern tour as far East as the Dominion of her Majesty, playing through all of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and the entire Eastern States, coming South the same autumn covered with glory from a hundred well gained triumphs, to winter in Atlanta—its home. From here again it started early last year, traversing the whole of the West, coming South as usual in September, and this time going into winter quarters at Selma, in which city it reorganized last spring, bringing from Europe, over our railroads to that central point special train after train of wild animals, living curiosities, bears dens and tableaux cars. These, with nearly three square acres of bran new canvass, were added to the old show, making the Great Eastern the most elaborate, gigantic and formidable establishments in this or the old world.

The past season has been more than usually brilliant in a rapid succession of successes complete and overwhelming in their magnitude.

The Zoological aggregation embraces nearly every animal ever known to natural historians—the bird show is dazzling with rarity and many colored plumage—the museum combines enough wonder to fill two or three pavilions alone, and the whole is under one vast city of tents, measuring one hundred and sixty thousand yards of canvass.

ADDITIONAL PARTICULARS ABOUT THE ROBBERY OF MR. CAMP.—We learned yesterday the following additional facts relative to the recent robbing of Mr. Benjamin Camp, Sr., at the Car Shed, an account of which was published in Sunday's Constitution. The little girl, Miss Fannie Glover, who was with Mr. Camp, and saw the theft, was taken to the Kimball House yesterday morning, where she identified a man by the name of Frank Dumot or Dumont, as being the guilty party. This man was taken in charge, and upon the facts being made known to the Grand Jury, that body at once found a bill against him for larceny from the person. He was arrested upon a Bench Warrant, and sent to jail yesterday afternoon. His trunk was searched and $30 in money found, but whether or not this is Mr. Camp's money, can only be made to appear on the trial. Dumont stoutly protests his innocence, but the little girl, who is about thirteen years of age, maintains she recognizes him as being the man. The case will now be tried before the Superior Court. Messrs. Hooper and Howell represent the state, and Messrs. Brown and Hill, the defense.

BROAD STREET presented a business-like appearance yesterday evening. From Judge Strong's office to the corner of Hunter street, the sidewalk was jammed with cotton, and the vacant lot on the opposite corner, had quite a number of bales piled up on it.

ST. PAUL'S SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Annual Celebration—Speeches by Rev. D. Wills, D. D., Rev. C. A. Evans and Rev. W. H. Potter—Prizes and Surprises—Crowded House and a Delighted Audience.

At an early hour last night, the elegant church edifice on Hunter street, 26 by 54 feet, known as St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church, was filled to its utmost capacity. Its usual seating room is 350, but last night there were between four and five hundred who assembled within its walls. In the pulpit were Rev. D. Wills, D. D., Rev. W. H. Potter, Rev. C. A. Evans, Rev. J. R. Mayson, Rev. C. A. Dowman, and the pastor of the church, Rev. G. H. Pattillo.

The exercises were opened with singing by the school, "The Great White Throne," found on the 99th page of the "Gem." Then followed reading the Scriptures and prayer, by Rev. J. R. Mayson. The school then sang the song on the 76th page of the "Amaranth," "There is a Light in the Valley for Thee."

was then introduced to the audience. His remarks were in his usual felicitous style. He asked two things of the boys and girls present—their eyes and their ears. In the Rocky Mountains there were two springs rising so close together that one could dip water from either without making steps. One stream flowed easterly through the Gulf of Mexico until its waters mingled with the Atlantic; the other westerly until it found an ocean home in the broad Pacific. Youth was the simile of these streams. There were present before him, perhaps in these little ones, the Governor Smiths, the Chief Justice Warners, the A. H. Stephens, the R. E. Lees, the Bishop Pierces, the James R. Evans, the Prof. Mallons of the future. He gave the boys and girls some sensible advice. He asked why Moses could not enter the promised land. It was because he was the lawgiver, and the law must die on this side, while Joshua came and bid the cold waves of death divide in order that we might safely enter the promised land.

A little boy in Atlanta once climbed up the scaffold of a tall building then in process of erection. The scaffold gave way as he neared the top, and seeing a rope suspended from the building, he seized hold of it. He could not ascend, and to let go was to fall a distance of thirty feet and meet a horrible death.

A gentleman seeing his danger called out to him: "John, let go and fall into my arms." John hesitated for awhile, but finally let go and was saved.

Children are suspended by the cord of life, liable to fall into the pit of despair at any moment. Fall now into the arms of Jesus and be saved for evermore.

The school sang, "Going Home," on page 61 of the Gem.

He closed with a successful appeal to the congregation to assist the Church in raising funds enough to meet her needs. Some $200 was raised. Mr. Camp, the gentleman who was robbed at the depot, gave all that was left him into the treasury, and proposes to give $10 on the recovery of his money.

SURPRISES.

Rev. C. A. Evans then came forward and remarked that the order of dealing in prizes would now be changed to surprizes. He then, in the name of the school, presented to Isaac B. Pilgrim, Secretary and Librarian, who for five years past has been absent from his post only twice, a beautiful silver salver and goblets, engraved. Mr. Pilgrim responded in a brief but touching manner.

The Pastor, Rev. G. H. Pattillo, was next surprised by the presentation of a gold lever watch appropriately engraved. The watch was purchased from Er Lawshe. The remarks of Rev. C. A. Evans, and the reply of Rev. G. H. Pattillo were exceedingly happy and appropos.

The next one to be surprised was the old Sunday School veteran, Frank M. Richardson. The present was a handsome silver pitcher "To F. M. Richardson, the founder and beloved Superintendent of St. Paul's Sunday School." With evident emotion Mr. Richardson responded in his peculiar and happy style. We have not time or space to give even a synopsis of the speeches made.

The singing was in the usual magnificent manner of St. Paul's Sunday School. The "Sweet By and By," page 84 of the Gem, and "Plea for Mercy," 129th page of the Amaranth, were specially fine.

After a benediction, by Rev. D. Wills, D. D., the congregation dispersed, delighted with the exercises attending the anniversary of this young and vigorous school, and more particularly that under the head of "miscellaneous" such interesting features were added to the program me.

"The Panic Over."

Editors Constitution:—Referring to your editorial in your issue of the 29th ultimo, under the above caption, it affords us great pleasure to corroborate all your statements. When Jay Cooke & Co. failed, we had a large amount owing to us throughout Middle and Northern Georgia, and we are glad to say that almost without an exception our customers have paid us liberally and promptly. Now bearing in mind that the yield of cotton in middle and upper Georgia, is much heavier than was expected we think we have the best of reasons for saying that all who desire to do so, can pay their debts. The few, (and we are glad to say there are very few,) who are trying to plead "panic" to avoid the payment of their debts, will be marked by all business men, long after the late pressure shall have been forgotten. THE FUNERAL OF MR. WILLIS A. JONES.—The First Baptist Church was well filled yesterday afternoon by sympathizing friends, upon the occasion of the funeral of the gentleman whose name heads this article. The Masons, of which fraternity he was a member, were out in force. The discourse was preached by Rev. E. W. Warren, and was one of the most impressive we have ever heard. To the afflicted family he had many words of comfort, and he touched upon the virtues and piety for which the deceased had been so prominent in life, with much eloquence. A very large procession followed the remains to the cemetery and they were consigned to the tomb with Masonic rites. We unite with their many friends in our profound sympathy for Mr. Jone's family.

A LIVELY TUSSLE WITH AN OBSTINATE PRISONER.—Last night officers Hutchins and Flynn, of the police force, had quite a lively time arresting a prisoner. The officers were called upon by Mr. Joe Battis, who keeps a store on Decatur street, to arrest A. Flemming, as he had been annoying him by pushing the older son of Battis and others from his store, and throwing rocks at him. The attack was unprovoked, and the men threatened to do Mr. Battis serious harm. The men had left before the officers arrived, but they learned that they could find them at a ball in the Blackstock settlement just in the rear of the Second Ward. When the officers reached the ball room they found Jasper Flemming standing in the door, and took him out. On taking him by each arm, Flemming had an open knife in his pocket which he suddenly displayed, and he was as suddenly thrown down to prevent his using it. While on the ground he managed to cut both officers, Flynn and Hutchins in the hands, fortunately very slightly, as well as to tear up the formers overcoat. They tried to handcuff him but he was powerful enough to break the handcuffs into pieces. During the tussle, which lasted over ten minutes, a crowd, including several of the Blackstocks came out of the house and threatened to attack the officers with sticks and knives. The latter deputized some young men whom they carried with them to assist in their defense.

Messrs. Nick King and Henry Johnson both behaved gallantly in helping the policemen and were each knocked down during the scuffle. The prisoner was brought away with great difficulty to the station house and housed. The policemen then returned and arrested A. Flemming, whom they also locked up. Battis intends to prosecute both of these men. The affair at one time threatened to be very serious, and trouble was only prevented by the determined behavior of the officers.

ACCIDENT ON WEST POINT TRAIN.—The accommodation train on the Atlanta and West Point Road ran over a cow near LaGrange yesterday morning. The engine was turned over, delaying the train several hours.

Ed. Webb, a wood-passer on the West Point Road, fell off the train at East Point, at 5 P. M., yesterday. His head and back were seriously injured, and he has been insensible ever since. He lives in this city and has a wife and several children. Dr. W. F. Westmoreland is attending him.

NEGRO SHOT.—Last night, between ten and eleven o'clock, officer Bob Bolton, while on his beat in the 7th Ward, found two negroes fighting. He tried to stop them, when they both turned on him, got his club away and drew their knives. The officer then began firing and shot one of the darkies in the breast. The wound, however, is not serious, as the ball glanced from the breast bone. The other darkey was brought to the Station House. We could not learn the name of the wounded negro, who was carried home.

Everywhere they are coming to the conclusion that

ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

FOR 1873.

A DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER,

DAILY AND WEEKLY.

THE FAVORITE OF ALL CLASSES

Lawyers, Merchants, Farmers, Etc.

TWELVE REASONS FOR SUBSCRIBING

1. THE CONSTITUTION is published at the Capital of the State, and contains Proceedings of the Legislature in full, together with constant and accurate information of the actings of all the Departments of the State Government.

2. It has the sole and exclusive right of publishing the DECISIONS OF THE SUPREME COURT from the Reporter of the Court. These Decisions are delivered on Monday of every week and are immediately published in THE CONSTITUTION. Hence every lawyer in Georgia should take the paper, and the great proportion are subscribers.

3. THE CONSTITUTION is the Official Journal of the State, of the city of Atlanta and a large number of counties.

4. THE CONSTITUTION publishes a weekly Cotton Editorial, embracing remarks on the Gold Premium and all matters affecting the cotton trade, with statistics difficult to be obtained elsewhere. Producers and dealers in cotton, not alone in Georgia, but all over the country, procure THE CONSTITUTION for these articles.

5. THE CONSTITUTION furnishes Telegraphic Dispatches and news from all quarters of the globe, including markets, domestic and foreign. Hence the paper is popular with merchants everywhere.

6. Besides our Daily Associated Press Dispatches, THE CONSTITUTION has specials from Washington, the National Capital.

7. Its Correspondence Department is unsurpassed, go the South, having special correspondents at Washington, New York, and in various parts of the country.

8. THE CONSTITUTION publishes a monthly Fashion Letter from New York, written by the most celebrated female Fashion writer in the United States. The ladies, therefore, all want THE CONSTITUTION.

9. A new feature for this year will be Weekly European Correspondence, by which the readers of THE CONSTITUTION will be taken on a tour through Europe.

10. The ablest writers and statesmen of Georgia select THE CONSTITUTION to give their views to public, and so do the PEOPLE, and hence it is the admitted leading Democratic Journal of the State.

11. The two great SPECIALTIES, our SUPREME COURT DECISIONS for the lawyers, and our COTTON articles for the merchants and farmers, make THE CONSTITUTION unrivalled in this part of the South.

12. For the reasons given above, THE CONSTITUTION is the paper for all classes, lawyers, merchants, farmers, mechanics and others, circulates in every county of Georgia, has the largest State circulation and is, therefore, the favorite medium for ADVERTISERS.

Every Georgian should, after taking his own local paper, subscribe for THE CONSTITUTION, published at the Capital of his State; and we would here return thanks to the people for a patronage, that has culminated in the grandest newspaper success known in the Southern States. THE CONSTITUTION, not yet five years old, has attained a circulation never reached by a Daily paper in Georgia, and has erected a magnificent five-story building of its own, as complete as any in the United States, giving employment to seventy or eighty persons daily, and running a half dozen presses by steam. Visitors to Atlanta are cordially invited to call and examine THE CONSTITUTION building and its powerful presses, printing four or five thousand papers per hour.

Dr. Calhoun's Liver Pills.

I AM engaged in the Manufacture of the Celebrated Family Medicine, known as the Calhoun Liver and Anti-Bilious Pills, under the supervision and assistance of Dr. Calhoun himself. This Pill has been in use for the last thirty-five years, and has taken precedence over all other Family Preparations, by all that have used them. Thousands would certify to their great value if necessary. One fact should supersede any amount of certificates, and that fact is this: Dr. Calhoun has been physician to the Fulton County Prison for over seven years, when the number of prisoners ranged from 20 to 70, laboring under all the diseases incident to this climate. With but few exceptions, they have all been treated with this Pill, and astonishing to say, during that long period not a solitary death occurred under his treatment. This fact is worth any amount of testimonials.

I am now prepared to fill orders from Druggists, Merchants and others. All orders sent me shall receive prompt attention. There is no type of FEVER, DYSPEPSIA, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, RHEUMATISM, CHOLERA MORBUS, BILLIOUSNESS and SICK HEADACHE, or other diseases of a Southern climate, but yields readily to this preparation.

For sale by all druggists.

Price 50 cents a Box.

None genuine unless it bears the signature of N. C. Williams and picture of Dr. Calhoun.

THE DAILY CONSTITUTION

Reading Notices.

Success is the best test of superiority; the wonderful demand for Simmons' Liver Regulator is one of the convincing proofs that this article is appreciated above everything else of the kind. However much its jealous defamers may throw their shafts, truth will prevail, and so will this medicine.
nov25-deod1w&w1t

Pernicious Purgatives.—The brilliant idea of half a century ago that the weak and ailing could be bled, blistered and salivated into a condition of health and vigor is happily exploded; but violent and prolonged purgation is still, to some extent, in vogue. We have imposters who are daring enough to offer to the world, as tonics and restoratives, the most destructive cathartics, unmodified by a single stimulating, soothing, or restorative element. Compare the operation of one of these terrible nostrums with that of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, in which are combined the three great curative elements—a tonic, an alterative, and an aperient. The former completely paralyzes the vital forces, so that nature can make no resistance to disease; the latter sustains the strength of the patient, while it restores the suspended functions of the secretory organs and relieves the bowels without violence or pain. It is simply a choice between restoration and prostration.

Why Will Ye Die?—Death, or what is worse, is the inevitable result of continued suspension of the menstrual flow. It is a condition which should not be trifled with. Immediate relief is the only safeguard against constitutional ruin. In all cases of suppression, suspension or other irregularity of the "courses," Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator is the only sure remedy. It acts by giving tone to the nervous centres, improving the blood and determining directly to the organs of menstruation. It is a legitimate prescription, and the most intelligent Doctors use it. Prepared by J. H. Bradfield, druggist, Atlanta, Ga; $1 50 per bottle, and sold by respectable druggists everywhere.

Tuskegee, Ala.

Mr. L. H. Bradfield—Sir: Please forward us, immediately, another supply of Bradfield's Female Regulator. We find it to be all that is claimed for it, and we have witnessed the most decided and happy effects produced by it. Very respectfully,
Hunter & Alexander.

I could add a thousand other certificates; but I consider the above amply sufficient proof of its virtue. All I ask is a trial.

DR. TUTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS.

THE ONLY KNOWN MEDICINE,
THAT AT THE SAME TIME
PURGES, PURIFIES AND STRENGTHENS THE SYSTEM.

Dr. Tutt's Pills are composed of many ingredients. Prominent among them are Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry, so united as to act together; the one, through its admixture with other substances, purifying and purging; while the other is strengthening the system. Thus these Pills are at the same time a tonic and a cathartic, a desideratum long sought for by medical men, but never before discovered. In other words, they do the work of two medicines and do it much better than any two we know of, for they remove nothing from the system but impurities, so that while they purge they also strengthen and hence they cause no debility and are followed by no reaction.

Dr. Tutt's Pills have a wonderful influence on the blood. They not only purify without weakening it, but they remove all noxious particles from the chyle before it is converted into fluid, and thus makes impure blood an utter impossibility. As there is no debilitation, so there is no nausea or sickness attending the operation of this most excellent medicine which never strains or tortures the digestive organs, but causes them to work in a perfectly natural manner; hence persons taking them do not become pale and emaciated, but on the contrary, while all impurities are being removed, the combined action of the Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry purifies and invigorates the body, and a robust state of health is the result of their united action. Price 25 cents a box. Sold by all druggists. Depot 48 Courtland street, New York.
